YOUR GOVERNMENT

WHAT THE CITY COUNCIL IS DOING

The Council has asked the street committee to require the Texas Power and Light Company to place the street lights in the center of the streets. This action was taken at the Tuesday night meeting following recommendations made by Giles L. Avriett and F. S. Lesovsky who came as a committee from the Commercial Club. The Council had previously had this matter under consideration but no action was taken. Mayor Davis in reply to the committee said that the city has a contract with the power company that the street lights are to be placed under the supervision of the street committee and as this has not been done the matter on motion of J. C. Joseph and seconded by S. H. McDermott was referred to the street committee for action.

The company has completed the construction of its lines over the city and it is not known what the attitude of the company will be toward this demand of the city. Wm. R. Rogers as chairman of the street committee urged for several months that the lights be placed in the center of streets over intersections but nothing was accomplished in this direction. The street committee will have this matter under consideration with power to act.

J. C. Joseph resigned as alderman to take up his duties as secretary and treasurer, presenting his bond for $10,000 which was approved. Mr. Joseph in his resignation expressed his regret on retiring from the board of aldermen and his services were commended by the council. Mr. Joseph will be secretary until Mr. Brown recovers from his illness. Mr. Brown is in a hospital in Dallas and reports are that his condition has shown a slight improvement.

Vaccination of dogs to prevent rabies will begin soon, City Marshal Slocomb will have charge of the vaccination. All dogs must be vaccinated under the terms of the ordinance and all dogs not vaccinated or accounted for are disposed of. Mr. Slocomb is now doing mosquito control work and in company with Dr. Epperson is making weekly inspections of meat and food houses and also the water supply.

Dr. G. B. Taylor appeared before the council to call attention to excessive use of chlorine in the water. He said that recently, according to estimates about $100 worth of gold fish were killed by the water. Dr. Taylor lost his gold fish at that time. The matter was referred to the committee on fire and water of which S. H. McDermott is chairman. Dr. Taylor also asked the appointment of a committee of citizens to ask the railroad companies to repair the crossings to make them smooth. The council on motion by J. B. White asked Robert McLane, John E. Mangum and R. L. Batte to make this request of the railroads. Dr. Taylor also called attention to awning signs. These signs many of them are hung too low over the sidewalks and the tall men of the town find difficulty in walking along the sidewalks. The matter was referred to the city marshal for attention.

Street Committee chairman Logan Green is making a record never before attained in administering the street department. By reason of his economy and the sale of dirt from the streets to citizens of Cameron he has been able to practically defray the expenses of the street work. Mr. Green is doing some splendid work in drainage and otherwise, reaching sections of the city heretofore not touched in street work. The city has been required to spend only about $800 for general expenses and has borrowed only $3,000 this year, a large portion of which went for the payment of outstanding debts held over from other years. The city council is pleased with the manner in which Mr. Green has handled the street work and the citizens at large appreciate the fine work he is doing.

Alderman White who is chairman of the committee on taxation told the council Tuesday night that he would favor the reduction of the tax rate 5c on account of the fact that the city is not now maintaining a band director. This saving to the tax payers will not hamper city finances and as he points out there is no occasion for the expenditure as no band is maintained and the people are entitled to the reduction.

Mayor Davis feels that the city will end the present fiscal year with a nice cash balance to the credit of the city. He is to be congratulated on the manner in which he is administering the government. Mayor Davis is serving his second term in office. During his administration the city has made rapid progress despite the pressure of hard times.

MOTHER'S DAY

The saving tenderness of a feverish age is the immortality of the home ties, whose chief sentiment envelopes the motherhood which cradles us.

Ever since mankind discovered capacity for emotion the world's sons and daughters have striven to express something of the gentleness, something of the profound love and sacrifice, something of the great and noble symbolism embodied in the word "Mother."

There is sentiment, and there is sentimentality, but the feeling which bids earth's children to bear thoughtfully, remembrance toward the genius of the home defies the straight boundaries of definition; it is the truest, purest impulse, neither arguing nor explaining, but justified in love and duty.

Searching the walls of art galleries and the verses of poets one may find ever some new compelling light on the loftiness of motherhood; but, for the most part it is not necessary to search beyond the walls of one's heart and within the verses of individual experience to know that the loveliest thing of creation is enshrined in the word "Mother."

If it be necessary to set aside a day to urge us to turn back and smile a message to those figures of sublimity, then let it be with quick, generous and lasting sincerity. For on Mother's Day, not only this happy little woman or that grave, grey figure are to know that children do not forget, but all the mothers of all the years can share something of the spiritual benediction which springs from a universal tribute.

BUSINESS WOMEN IN PICNIC AT PARK

ONE ACT COMEDY PLAY FEATURES PROGRAM TUESDAY EVENING

The first picnic outing of the season for the Business and Professional Women's Club was enjoyed Tuesday evening at the City Park. Despite the threatening weather a large number were present and a delightful plate luncheon with ice tea was enjoyed.

Aftr the lunch the members repaired to the pavillion where a short business session was held. At this time Mrs. Nora Moody, who is traveling in the interest of John Golden's Better Plays Extension of New York City, was introduced to the club and gave a brief description of the "Better Plays Extension" movement. Readers of the Saturday Evening Post need no introduction to John Golden and and his work. After giving a detailed account of the play and manner of putting it on, the club voted to book the Golden play entitled "Three Wise Fools," one of the comedy classics of the American stage; one of the greatest plays that has been produced and ranks along with Mr. Golden's other great hits that have been running in New York and other large cities for some time. It ranks with "Lightnin", "Turn to th Right," and "seventh Heaven." The club's object in booking this high class play is to bring something to Cameron that is worthwhile and to try to make some money to carry on other worthwhile efforts on the part of the club.

After the business session the chairman of this months entertainment, Mrs. Perry Wilkerson, put on a one act comedy playlet, by the following members of the club: Lucille McLerran, as bride, Annie Stallworth the groom; Imogene McLerran, as maid of honor; Oleta Jackson, as matron of honor; Leila Woolley, house guest; Bessie Dunham and Carrie Marek, bride maids; Mrs. Katie Robbins, Aunt Primm; Miss Delphya Scott, minister. On being asked, "What the play was entitled," said, "The Gathering of the Nuts."

The following committee was appointed for next month's entertainment: Chairman, Mrs. W. A. Copus, assistants, Mrs. W. H. Stafford, Mrs. Hubert Hefley, Miss Carrie Marek, Miss Lucille McLerren and Mrs. Zarosky.

The following guests were present beside club members: Mesdames Nora Moody, H. G. Kenney, B. Solcomb, Ben Atkinson, Estelle Hinton, Jack Owings, Virgie Woolley, Gilmore and W. B. Menefee and Misses M. Bartholomew, Kulak, Lois Burnett, Louise Elliott, Mable Wade, Edna Radtke, Oleta Jackson Susie Butts, and little Patsie McGregor.

The following were elected to membership in th club: Misss Minnie Bartholomew, Susie Butts, Oleta Jackson and Pauline Hall.

The club wishes to extend thanks to the Robert McLane Wholesale Grocery company, who so generously furnished the tea; the Milam County Hardware Company, who provided the tea glasses and to the Texas Power and Light Company who strung the electric light wires at the park and pavillion and furnished the lights free. The entire club feels very grateful for these courtesies.

Mr. and Mrs. George Simonds last week moved to their new home in Shreveport. Mr. Simonds was formerly manager of the Schuhmacher Company here, being recently succeeded by Mr. Rodesney. It is said that Mr. Simonds has accepted a position with an automobile concern in Shreveport. They have many friends in Cameron who will regret their departure from this city.

SHOTS FIRED TO STOP FLEEING AUTOMOBILE

DESERTERS CAPTURED HERE AFTER CHASE THROUGH CITY

Sheriff Conner of Brownsville was in Cameron Sunday to take back to prison Frank Deelan and John Smith, captured here last Friday after a chase through the city with Deputies Will Vaughn and Guy Pope in which the car used by the fugitives was punctured with bullets.

The men were returned for desertion from the guard house at artillery headquarters in Fort McIntosh on the border.

Sheriff Blaylock received a reward for the capture of these men and also for the car which was stolen from Brownsville.

A telephone message from Buckholts early that morning said two men in an Essex coach had driven into a station there and after filling their car with gas drove away without paying for the service. Deputies Guy Pope and Will Vaughan went out on the Buckholts road and met the car coming in.

They tried to stop the car but the soldiers passed by at a high rate of speed. The deputies then gave chase Mr. Vaughan firing some shots in an effort to bring down the tires.

The chase proceeded down the road and into town. The soldiers hit the pavement at the Mondrik store and went to the fire station corner with the deputies in pursuit. It was about 8 o'clock in the morning and with the traffic beginning to thicken the cars were slowed up. The car went up the street and turned left on the Hospital street and proceeded to the Beard grocery with the deputies in pursuit.

Turning east to the schools the car sped ahead. Mr. Vaughn emptied his pistol and shot one of the tires out. Three bullet holes were found in the car after the car hit a tree near the A. N. Green residence. The driver of the car had his side grazed with a bullet.

The men were placed under arrest and taken to jail. It developed that there were three men in the car, one of them being captured by an officer who was looking for a negro who had robbed a store. The men were stopped and the officer became suspicious. He started to town with men but two of them escaped. He telephoned Mr. Blaylock about the escape.

The car was damaged slightly, a large bumper saving the machine from being demolished.

The men confessed their escape from the guard house at Fort McIntosh. They had stolen the car from the sheriff at Brownsville. The car had been seized in a liquor raid and was being held for evidence. The car has been returned to the sheriff there by deputies who came after the men.

Mr. Vaughan after emptying his pistol took Mr. Pope's gun and fired several shots. Mr. Vaughan did not attempt to shoot the men but the cars were lurching about on the street, going at a high rate of speed and it was difficult to place the shots, consequently three of them entered the body of the car from the rear and one shot went through the back seat and into the seat where the driver was seated, grazing his side.

The men said they had escaped the guard house and were on their way back to New York.

Homer Grubbs Held for Robbery Garage In Thorndale Deal

C. A. Wuensche, proprietor of the Ideal Garage, Emil Moerbe and A. H. Roepke were on business at Cameron last Tuesday, being called there to attend an examining trial of two young men charged by complaint with robbing the Ideal Garage here several days ago of over $400 worth of auto casings. Quite a number of the casings were located and sufficient evidence was secured to base a charge of burglary against Homer Grubbs, well known here, and a young man by the name of Corbett entered a plea of guilty but Mr. Grubbs denies having any part in the robbery.

Mr. Wuensche offered $100 reward for the tires and he has recovered about twelve or more of the 35 or 40 stolen casings already.—Thorndale Champion.

The skunk supply in New York is diminishing. Hunters in 1923 got 97,885 as compared to double that number in 1918, the commissioner reports ,but they got 8,000 deer and over a half a million rabbits.

"The far-famed lion hunting in the vicinity of Raymondville is to be tested in the near future by Will J. Tucker, State Game and Fish Commissioner" says an item in the Alice Echo. Game Law violaters will expect every lion to do its duty.

To Mothers and Others--

who are living during an advanced age in a modern town, the county seat of Old Milam County, in which I was born and have lived in and around Cameron since 1871 and all of my clothing and groceries that I have used were bought in the new called modern city of Cameron, Texas. My first acquaintance with a meat market in this city the meat was chopped in chunks with the ax and the old butcherknife with a hole cut in your meat to stick your finger in to take home. Now we are living in a modern age and as I have had thirty years experience serving the people in the butcher business in Cameron to the present age with the State, County and City Health Officers watching the sanitary conditions of the food that is offered for sale.

I have installed a modern up to date refrigerator air plant holding the temperature to 34 to 36 degrees which is endorsed by the Health Officers as being strictly sanitary. As I am handling home killed meats and packing house products it will be well worth your time to call and inspect this modern and Sanitary City Market located on the North side of the public square. A number of ladies and old friends have called and congratulated me for the construction of such a fine cold storage plant in this modern up to date city where too much cannot be said or done in praise for the meat industry.

We will thank you one and all for your patronage. We can serve you Ham Baked Lunch, Ham Cheese, Barbecue, Hot Sausage, Chili, Stew and short order lunches at all hours.

NAUSEA

This and Other Troubles Relieved By Black-Draught.

Mrs. Ada Blackmar, of Alexander City, Ala., writes: "From time to time, I would have spells of nausea . . . . , which would put me to bed. I would turn a dull, yellow color and, for days at a time, would have no appetite. Everything I ate sickened me.

"My mother had been a user of Black-Draught for years, so while I was at home, visiting, she asked me why I did not try Black-Draught for my troubles.

"I began taking a small dose, three times a day, before meals. I kept this up for several weeks, and it was just a little while before I began to notice an improvement in my condition.

"Black-Draught is certainly a fine medicine."

You will say the same thing, once you have tried Thedford's Black-Draught.

BEN ARNOLD H. D. CLUB TO A. AND M.

REPORTER GIVES INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF COLLEGE VISIT

Ben Arnold, Texas, May 2, 1927.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Am I coming too often? If you feel like getting sassy about it just sass the H. D. Club president. She told me to write about our trip to A. & M. Thursday, April 28, and when she says 'do', it just means 'do.'

As pre-arranged we, a crowd mostly of women did not meet at Maysfield but everybody made it to College Station; and it did not take Mr. Banzhaf long to get the crowd together and over to the Extension building where every courtesy was shown us, with a thorough inspection of that beautiful pile of masonry. A two story building with basement, devoted exclusively to the agricultural and animal industry. If a few more of us could view this building, I believe there would be more interest taken in what our Uncle Sam is doing for his children in the farming and dairying business.

Our next visit was to the Veternary building. Here we found the bones of every animal I ever heard of. Even the pre-historic mammoth. And we were amazed to learn that some of these bones were picked up in our own localities—Rockdale, Calvert and Marlin. The walls in one room were hung with what appeared to be map tracings. Upon closer inspection we found this to be the entire blood-vessels of different animals removed and mounted. Here we found the bust of most all races known to man, done either in wax or plaster, and about three-fourths of them had the features of the common negro. Last but not least, in interest we were shown a real sure enough honest to goodness Egyptian mummy. Our guide was regretting that this art of preserving the human body was lost. For my part I'm glad of it. I'd hate powerful bad to know that 3600 years from now a crowd of folk would come along and stare at my big toe, with an almost irresistable desire to try to see if it would wiggle.

Our next visit was the Textile Building. This machinery was not running, but we saw where the lint cotton was spun into a rope as large as the wrist and followed the spools the length of that long building, each becoming smaller till the tiny thread was ready for the warp.

The next business on hand was the inner self. We spread a bountiful lunch on the campus, and the pleasure we derived from watching the students march by on their way to 'mess' was not the least of our many pleasures for that day by any means. It made you wish you had a dozen boys and could put them all at A. & M.

Our next visit, I must confess was a disappointment. I'm sure each woman's husband was at home tuned in on WTAW and each woman thought she was going to get to say 'Hello Daddy.' But when we got to the broadcasting station, it said in great big letters, 'Keep Out.' When we came out of that wonderful electrical building our brains were all twisted and warped trying to recall whether that pretty brown eyed boy said 500 or 200,000 watts.

Our next visit was to the poultry department. Except for being on a larger scale this is about as you will see at most chicken yards. And we have these experiment stations to thank for our up to date yards too. Here we saw a White Leghorn cock that cost $100. Some Rooster.

A. & M. has a real first class zoo also. Deer as tame as cattle.

Our last trip of inspection was the dairy. Here we found it so clean and cool we would have enjoyed spreading lunch amon gthe animals, some of them being so valuable they had electric fans. These buildings were so nice and cool on the inside and the sun so hot o nthe outside, some of us wished we were cows. Here we got on the outside of some delicious strawberry ice cream. Also I believe this was where Mrs. Kosel and Mrs. Vogelsang got their faces washed too.

By the way, Mr. Editor, did you ever see a country woman all rouged and powdered up nice and proper try to drink out of one of thes new fangled drinking fountains? Sure is a big kick in it, and not for the drinker either. But be sure they have their lip stick and rouge box handy.

This ended our inspection, for old Sol indicated that day was waning. Everywhere we went every one was eager to instruct and enlighten, so courteous and polite. A wonderful place truly, is our A. & M.

We started for home and stopped under the shade of some real nice man's lawn and had supper, I am sure he was nice as he allowed us to stay. In the cool of the evening we made our final start for home—tired and aching feet, but happy and content, feeling very much indebted to our splendid guides and counsellors, Miss Bartholmew and Mr. Banzhaf. And so ended a perfect day.

Brotherhood In City Hears Marlin Doctor

Dr. J. W. Torbett, physician at Marlin, delivered the principal address to the Methodist Brotherhood on last Thursday night. He took for his subject "Basic Principles of Success" and named five divisions as follows:

First: One should have something the people need, "Seek first religion, love, health and education," he said.

Second: Present it in a manner that will appeal to the people.

Third: Select to help you, persons who are able to hold the attention of the people. Let church, school, hospital and civic needs have a share of your personal work. Cultivate personality, which is a great asset. Use your personality, be enthusiastic and persevering.

Fourth: Secure co-operation. One cannot accomplish much by himself but with cooperation, anything can be done.

Fifth: Seek honest publicity. This in an advertising age. Put your personality in the things you wish to put over, advertise and great things may be accomplished. These are the five essentials to success. Don't complain, don't be a grouch. These things will never get you anywhere except into a back seat, he warned.

Dr. Torbett has been in Cameron on other occasions and has a large number of friends here who are glad of the opportunity to welcome him back to Cameron.

Farmers Get $30,000 From Bureau Cotton

Distribution by check of $30,268.34 by the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association to members in Milam County was made last Saturday.

According to G. W. Stinnett these checks represented a final payment for cotton held or sold by the association for its members. Advances were made in December and February also.

The checks were announced to be presentd at 2 o'clock Saturday aftrnoon at a meeting in the Milam County Court House called by T. W. Hander, district director of the association.

S. S. Class Picnic

Two classes of the Baptist Sunday School, the T. E. L. and Homemakers Class met together in the city park Wednesday afternoon for a picnic. Each class had its monthly business meeting, after which they joined for the social hour and the sixty-five present enjoyed a sumptuous feast. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Dobbins, who is moving to west Texas. Mrs. H. E. Graham and Mrs. John Denson are the teachers of the two classes. The slogan of the Homemakers in the campaign for new members is 'get one.' Splendid work is being done by the members of these classes. Several quilts have been sent to the orphans at Buckner Orphans' Home at Dallas.

In 1881 the Galveston News carried an editorial complaining that the protection granted fish and game was almost worthless because so many counties were exempted from the law, and because there was no protection to marine fish. "Plentiful a few years ago, fish in the bays are becoming scarce," it was declared, "by the destruction of spawn by seines in shallow waters." The first coast law on seining was passed in 1887; the first inland law was passed in 1874.

Mother--

The Grey Figure of the Ages—the guiding genius of all that is pure and Holy in human influence—Mother.

Wherever she may be on next Sunday—Mother's Day—we will honor her with all the reverence an appreciative heart may command. The Old Home Nest is the sacred spot on earth. There in the twilight of fading day, Mother sits breathing a prayer for her boy or girl long since swallowed up by life's cares in the mighty struggle of the world. Her life sheds its benediction into our lives so that she remains the greatest influence we may know in this life in Human element to guide and bless us in the span Providence has allotted to us.

Pomp and Circumstance may claim much of our time and talent but no condition can take away the reverence for her, nor fail to lead us back to childhood again with the sweet and trusting hours we knew at Mother's side.

Let us make Sunday May 8th all that it should mean in our reverence for Mother.

FUNDS ARE NEEDED FOR MEXICAN CHURCH

F. A. HERNANDEZ APPEALS FOR AID IN PLAN FOR WORK HERE

To friends:

We want to build a Mexican Baptist church in the city of Cameron, Texas and need at least $2500.

"If there be among you a poor man or one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother, but thou shall open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanted." Deut. 15:7, 8, and 10.

"But whosoever hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother have need, and stutteth up his bowels of compasion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth." John 3: 17, 18.

"He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack." Prov. 28: 37; 19: 17.

"Thus it is His will that the things of God be rendered to God and the things of Caesar to Caesar." Mark 12: 17. (Haggaie 1.)

The Persian throne, to which, because of departure from the Law Israel was subjected is here recognized whilst at the same time, Jehovah was with His people to animate and bless them.

Unbelief never fails of arguments but always has this capital defect that it leaves God out. The religion argument was: That the time, i. e, the seventy years of captivity, was not yet expired and therefore the building of the Temple should wait; and the civil argument was: That they had not the King's permission. Ezra. 4. The world did not oppose the building of the ceiled houses, but it did oppose the building of God's house.

It is so today. The world applauds a philanthropic, or social building, but opposes soul winning, and the adding of living stones to the spiritual Temple of God. It is easy to please God though circumstances may hinder the doing of a great thing for God; and the glory of God, and that which glorifies Him, are precious to the heart that loves Him. Christ, as the branch supplies life and food to his people who rest beneath its shadow and, as the stane, He is to them as imperishable foundation. Dedicated to the truth, justice and peace.

"And I say unto you, make to yourselves friends to the mammon of unrighteousness that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations." Luke 16: 9. "That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate, laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come. That they may lay hold on eternal life." 1 Tim. 6: 18, 19.

"I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Phil. 3: 14. Matt. 19: 21; 11: 41; 12: 33.

We will thank you for free will offerings. Make check to Mexican Baptist church, Box 366.

Yours truly and faithfully in our Divine Lord's work, Thank you,

F. A. HERNANDEZ.

E. A. Yarbrough

The home of E. E. Allison was saddened April 24, 1927 at 1:30 o'clock by the death of an uncle E. A. Yarbrough, who had been confined to his bed for 79 days. He passed away quietly at the age of 79 years, 6 months and 7 days. He served two years in the Confederate Army.

On November 30, 1869 he was married to Miss Thetus Eugenia Lee. To this happy union eight children were born of whom five are living, R. F. Yarbrough, Davilla; Marion Yarbrough, Rockdale; Claude Yarbrough, Oklahoma; H. E. Yarbrough, Aransas Pass and Mrs. Fred Daniels of Santa Anna. Mrs. Yarbrough died in 1911 and since that time Mr. Yarbrough has made his home with the children and about the last ten years has been living with his nephew and family.

At the age of 30 years Mr. Yarbrough became a member of the Christian church and has since lived in simple serene life of which his loved ones are proud. He was laid to rest at 2:30 o'clock April 25, 1927 in the Marlow Cemetery as was his request. Services were conducted by Rev. Wallace Jones, Christian preacher, of Cameron. Green Brothers, undertakers had charge of the funeral. He leaves to mourn his loss five children, several grand children and great grand children and a host of relatives and friends.

The pall bearers were N. Y. Hayes, Eugene Mode, Oscar Garner, Erskine McDermott, Ed Miller and Jimmie Coward.

State Aid Granted Thorndale for Road Gap in Highway 43

C. Saller, W. B. Elliott, G. S. Summerlin and Commissioner H. H. Moore, joined at Austin Monday by County Judge Kemp and County Engineer Mitchell of Cameron; H. C. Meyer and E. A. Camp of Rockdale, met with the State Highway Commission at Austin Monday and urged the commission in their own control with a view of closing up the uncompleted gap in Highway No. 43 near Thorndale. There are yet nearly seven miles of road running from Williamson County line west of Thorndale to the Rockdale Road District line east of our town on which the contract for building has never been let because of physical hindrances objectionable to the Federal Bureau of Roads, and therefore no Federal allottment has ever been made for the construction of the road.

The State Highway Commission received our representatives very cordially and after hearing our proposal the commission voted to make the state allotment of $100,000 for the construction of this road on the condition that the federal funds were also allotted dollar for dollar with state funds for this purpose. Our $25,000 was tendered the commission to use as they see best without any strings tied to the offer in that it was all we can do, and those attending the meeting seem to think that the difficulty of an agreeable right-of-way which has caused the delay in construction will be settled right soon by the state authorities and the Federal Bureau of Roads and the actual building of the road will be started within the next few months.—Thorndale Champion.

SABBATH MADNESS

The Sabbath, once the day of rest, is now fast becoming known as the day of eternal rest. For more people now go to an untimely death on that day than any other day ofthe week. Mad motoring is responsible for this ghastly change.

The Sabbath was made for man, to be sure, but not for the exercise to his uttermost folly. Yet as surely as Monday rolls around we have the gruesome front page news of the dead, the dying and the injured who have apparently gone mad over Sunday and have paid the price.

This is not the extent of the bad uses to which we are putting the Sabbath day, although they are the most spectacular. Add to this list the jangled nerves of many a good wife, the tired body of many a husband, the unnatural stimulation of many children of the families that rise early and start out on a quest of distance.

Fast and furious driving is likely to mark such a trip, with many near accidents. The mind, body and soul undergoes almost every experience and emotion except those of rest and repose and recreation. Then homeward journey and the sleep of exhaustion or, what is more likely, the sleeplessness of exhausted nerves.

The pendulum swings from extreme to extreme. The deathlike silence and stupor of the Sabbath of the past is gone and probably gone forever. But the deathly clamor of our Twentieth Century Sabbath is equally impossible. Wise motorists avoid Sunday travel as much as possible, or seek byways and unfrequented places. Or, what is best of all, use the care to take them a relatively short distance to a spot where they may make the most of the day in the rest and recreation of body and spirit which alone justify the Sabbath.

DEGRADATION OF SHORTCAKE

A rural correspondent voices in a communication a thought which has been in the minds of thousands but until now has not found adequate expression. He gives utterance to a feeling of regret, bitter and poignant, at the passing of old-fishioned strawberry shortcake; for, as he truly states, the food which is now masquerading as that delectable confection is a fraud and delusion unworthy of the name it bears. It is a timely and dignified protest against the degradation of what was once and still should be the noblest offering that can grace the vernal festal board and delight the palate of man.

The false strawberry shortcake is a sponge cake affair and the berries are not numerous. The real thing, as the correspondent says, is made of soda biscuit, baked in bread pans, with plenty of 'shortening' to make it light, and not too rich. A layer of the cake should be covered with berries crushed with sugar; on top of that another layer of cake and more berries; layers ad libitum, berries ad infinitum, "and on the top layer as many berries and as much juice as will stick.' Compared with this, he says, 'lotus eating is a piker's pastime." And those in whom ecstacy memories will be aroused by his description and whose mouths will water as they read it, no doubt will heartily endorse his opinion.

Three hundred years ago old Isaak Walton, seeking to extol the gentle art of angling, could think of no higher praise of it than to compare it to the strawberry. It ranked among sports, he said, as the strawberry ranks among berries, and quoted with approval the words of Dr. William Butler: "Doubtless God could have made a better berry, but doubtless God never did."

TREATY-OAK SPEAKS TO HIS PEOPLE

I come, not as a craven, to implore
That you preserve my life forevermore,
But as an honored one who long has known
Your very heart and mind. Here at my throne
Were signed momentous pacts with alien bands,
Who smoked the Peace pipe—clasped your patriots' hands.
'Twas here a wisdom, spurred by urgent need,
Culled, from the future, Freedom's hardy seed.

Romantic maids, from out a far tepee,
Have drunk my brew and told their loves to me;
The Thunder's boom above my head has rolled;
The "God of Winds" has grasped me in fierce hold;
Among my leaves, the Sun's gold rays have glanced;
And merry drops of silver rain have danced.
My hidden veins subsist on Texas loam;
My branches spread beneath her azure dome.
Oh, leave me with my dreams of ages past!

Through me respect traditions to the last!
My tree-soul cries its loyalty anew—
For all your progress has it joyed to view.
A patriarch asks that now you succor bring,
That he to well-earned prestige still may cling.
Endow me as your History's living shrine—
Your struggles and successes have been mine!

I come, not as a craven, to implore,
But place my life in trust—here, at your door.

—NORA HEFLEY MAHON.

ORDINANCE

An ordinance to make it unlawful to run railway engines or trains over railways in the city of Cameron between the Eastern and Western, and Northern and Southern boundaries at a greater rate of speed than 8 miles per hour; Provided that if such railways shall maintain such electric crossings of the public streets over such railways as may be designated by the City Council that then this ordinance shall not be effective as to any such railway and provided a penalty for violation of such ordinance, and declaring an emergency.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cameron:

1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to run or cause to be run any railway engines or train upon any railway track, or switch, in the City of Cameron between the eastern and the western boundaries of the corporate limits of said City, and between the southern and northern boundaries of the corporate limits of said City, at a greater rate of speed than eight miles per hour; provided that if any railway corporation owning and operating railway tracks and switches within said corporate limits shall install and maintain such electric signals, or gates, or watchmen at the crossings of the public streets of said City over the line, or switches of such railway corporation, as may be designated by the City Council, then this ordinance shall not be effective as to the lines and switches of said railway Company. Any persons who shall violate this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for each and every offense and shall be fined in a sum not less than Five Dollars and not more than One Hundred Dollars.

Frigidaire Adopted to Many Uses Says H. C. Keith, Dealer

Surprising adaptability of the electric refrigerator to many diversified uses is one of its most striking features, says H. C. Keith local Frigidaire dealer, who points out that scores of different industries have found a way to use it to their advantage and profit.

"You wouldn't expect to find an electric refrigerator aboard a submarine—but there are many of them," he says. "Undertaking parlors and beauty shops both find use for it. So also do photographers, bacteriologists, engineers, yacht owners and dozens of other types of users."

Explaining use of the electrical refrigerator on vessels, Mr. Keith cites submarines and coast guard boats on service in tropic waters, on which gunpowder must be kept at a low temperature to prevent deterioration. It is also used on fishing boats, thus increasing their storage space and the length of time they may remain at sea.

"Even its use in the home is becoming more diversified," the local dealer continued. "Good pastry depends largely upon properly chilling the ingredients before mixing. Eggs and cream whip better when cold. Chilled salads and frozen desserts are of course familiar to all."

The electrically refrigerated truck is a recent development. Ice cream manufacturers are using it to deliver their product to retailers. Motion pictures companies use it to help out the commissary department, when spending several days 'on location.' With its use movie stars have all sorts of table delicacies even in desert surroundings.

"The Olympian, one of the crack trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, has placed an electric refrigerator on its diner ,as a means of further alleviating tiresomeness of travel to the far northwest.

It is being used in hospital laboratories to preserve serums and in diet kitchens to prepare delicacies for the sick. Hotels and restaurants are using Frigidaire ice makers to get an adequate supply of ice cubes for table use, without the inconvenience of an outside ice supply.

"Cold drinking water for office buildings, banks, theaters and other places is being supplied through electrically refrigerated water coolers. On the dairy farm the electrically refrigerated milk cooler is insuring better milk to city people. For soda fountains, bottle coolers and many other uses Frigidaire is fast becoming standard equipment.

"Apartment house living conditions are changing for the better since advent of electrical refrigeration. Mechanical equipment in the basement supplies refrigeration for scores of apartments in one building, without any inconvenience whatsoever to the tenants. Landlords are istalling it purely for business reasons.

'Since the coming of electric refrigeration and its general adoption by dealers in food products, the housewife no longer has to buy her meat from a dark storage box, where she can't see what she is buying, before it is handled. The electric refrigerated display case, illuminated perhaps, places meat and other perishables where she may pick and choose at will while the merchant runs no risk of spoilage."

The electrically refrigerated storage box is already in general use. Merchants have found that this method for refrigeration affords advantages in economics and conveniences, which in many instances have paid for the equipment in a comparatively short time.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

APE FAILS TO LEARN WORDS SHOWS IMITATION LIMIT

Apes have a strong tendency to imitate what they see, but apparently little urge to duplicate what they hear, and in this lies one of the chief reasons why scientists have been unable to teach the animals how to talk, Dr. Robert M. Yerkes, of Yale university, believes, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. A chimpanzee might be instructed to talk with its fingers, after the manner of deaf persons, more easily than it could be made to imitate the sounds of human speech. Dr. Yerkes holds that the sounds made by apes are not a language at all, but, primarily, emotional expressions of fear, anger or other emotions, which are not learned by imitation.

BEETLES SEALED IN TREE FOR TWELVE HUNDRED YEARS

That no appreciable changes have occurred in a species of wood-boring beetle in the last 1,200 years is indicated on comparison of live specimens with dead ones which were recently found hermetically sealed in a giant Sequoia tree, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The insects apparently had entered the wood after it had been struck by lightening. Some failed to emerge and were imprisoned by the new growth that formed over the lightening scar. The time they entered the tree was computed by counting the annual rings that had grown outside of them. Naturalists are not surprised that the specimens were the same as those found alive today, for beetles are regarded as a "conservative lot," and 1,200 years is not a long time, geologically speaking. Species that were sacred to the Egyptians have shown no signs of change in thrice that time.

Bath House Enlarged

The work of adding an additional room of 22x24 feet each on both the east and west side of the original bath house at the Marvel Hot Water Well at Thorndale is making good progress and the work will be completed in a very few more days. A J. Urban & Sons, contractors are doing the work and all work now being done is of the first class.

The additional floor space thus added will provide for six more bath tubs, three for men and three for ladies, with extra shower baths for both sex(fourteen additional dressing rooms, several rooms for alcohol rubs, sweat boxes and rest rooms to accommodate a full run of business. It is estimated that 100 baths a day can easily be given without the least confusion after the equipment now being provided is fully installed.

Mr. Culver, the manager, has exhibited untiring effort to finance this project and he is now being rewarded by the popularity and liberal patronage the baths in this wonderful water are bringing him. The fame of the effects of the hot baths given is constantly spreading and complete satisfaction seems to be given each patient who has so far taken the baths systematically. It is not prophecy but stating a simple fact when we say that this wonderful water and the Bath House and Tourist Resort now in the imbrio stage, so to speak, will be one of the most popular health resorts in the country and Thorndale will share in this advantage. Let the good work proceed. Let all of us in this community help speed the progress of this work.—Thorndale Champion.

ELM RIDGE 19 SALEM 18

Elm Ridge, although outplayed and using three pitchers defeated Salem last Thursday on their home grounds 19 to 18. The Elm Ridge boys were very effective at the bat when hits meant runs. Schottle delivered good for five innings and gave way to Cook who proved the undoing for the Salemites, only two men reached first in the two innings.

Ritcher, portsider for Salem gave way to Polzer in the third who did well until the last half of the 9th inning when the bats of Elm Ridge could not be quieted and finally the winning run was put over. Mullinax of Salem at the keystone bag proved a star. There will be another game between the two teams in the near future.

Sells Poem

The Herald is publishing this week a poem by Mrs. Nora Hefley Mahon of Eastland, Texas. This poem was recently purchased and published by Farm and Ranch.

The following was clipped from the Eastland Daily Oil Belt News:

Mrs. Ralph D. Mahon, better known among poets as Nora Hefley Mahon has received a copy of the "Poets Scroll" for April, known as the "Treaty Oak" edition, in which is published one of her poems entitled "Treaty Oak Speaks to His People," which is announced as one of their prize poems. The "Poets Scroll" is a poetry magazine published in Oklahoma which gave a whole edition to the "Treaty Oak" contest among poets.

Another honor which has come to Mrs. Mahon is the publishing of her Texas Exes yell in the April number of the Alcalde. This she hopes may be adopted as the traditional yell of the Texas Exes as each group of University students has its own individual yell.

Friends in Cameron are in receipt of the following invitation to the marriage of Miss Irma Dalrynple which will take place at Lubbock, Texas, May 17th, 1927.

Miss Dalrymple has many friends in Cameron, having visited here on numerous occasions in the home of Mrs. Hubert Hefley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dalrymple request the pleasure of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Irma to Mr. Ross Allison McWhorter on Tuesday, May 17th, 1927 at 9:00 o'clock in the morning. First Methodist church, Lubbock, Texas.

Miss Kestenbaum Weds

An interesting romance which culminated in the marriage of Miss Flora Kestenbaum to Mr. Louis Hausenman of Brooklyn, New York, was solemnized Sunday, May 1st, 1927.

Mrs. Kestenbaum, Miss Flora and Dana have been visiting relatives in New York since March and it was then that this romance began.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Kestenbaum and possesses many personal charms. She graduated from Yoe High School in 1923 and attended Baylor College, Belton three years. Her many friends in Cameron and throughout the state will be interested in her marriage.

After May 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Hausman will be at home at 218 Van Buren, Brooklyn.

Mrs. Kestenbaum and Dana are expected to return to Cameron about May 8th.

Want Cream Routes

The Herald has received responses from two on rural routes in reply to the published application blank in this paper asking those who favor the establishment of cream routes to Cameron from the rural communities. Those who have signified their interest are:

Mrs. George B. Leath, Route 2,
Mrs. H. C. Burke, Route 1.

The signing of the blank imposes no obligation, it being the purpose of the effort to encourage the marketing of cream and to afford better facilities for marketing it. If a sufficient number respond to this it is very likely that cream companies will be induced to call for and deliver this cream to the station.

Lions Hold Meet

Chevrolet is the only car in its priceclass offering bodies by Fisher—built as only Fisher can build, and styled as low-priced cars were never styled before!

Bodies by Fisher are everywhere acknowledged to represent the highest order of beauty, luxury, and safety—and never was the superiority of Fisher craftsmanship more evident than in the Most Beautiful Chevrolet.

Despite the lowness of Chevrolet prices, there is not the slightest compromise in design, construction or finish. All embody exactly the principles employed on the highest priced cars—a composite construction of selected hardwood and steel. All are finished in beautiful colors of lustrous, lasting Duco.

Enhancing the beauty of the bodies themselves are numerous features of distinction previously considered exclusive to the costliest cars—features typified by heavy full-crown, one-piece fenders and bullet-type headlamps.

Only the economies of Chevrolet's great volume production make possible such quality at Chevrolet prices—value so outstanding that comparisons cease to exist. Ask for a demonstration!

VOTE ON AMENDMENTS IN AUGUST ELECTION

VOTERS WILL DECIDE THEN IF CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES SHALL BE MADE

Austin, April 27.—Notices of elections to be held August 1 on four proposed amendments to the state constitution are being sent out this week by Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, for official publication in all counties.

The first of the proposed amendments is for the revision of the state's judicial system. If adopted by the voters, it will authorize the creation of a supreme court of nine members instead of the present three members; a criminal appeals court of up to five members, courts of civil appeals not to exceed 12, each with a chief justice and "not less than two associate justices as the legislature may provide;" and for an unlimited number of judicial districts. The amendment provides that the supreme court may assign any district judge to another district to try cases.

Tax Change Asked

The other amendments are to provide for changes in the system of taxation, to provide for salaries for certain county officers in lieu of fees and commissions, and to take the present constitutional limits off the salaries of the governor and other officers and members of the legislature and fixing a $10,000 limit for the governor and a $1500 limit for members of the legislature.

As worder, the absence of a comma in the subdivision of the last amendment, raises the question whether the salary limit abolition affects any state officers or merely officers of the legislature. The section reads: "All provisions of the present constitution of Texas fixing or limiting the amount of salary or compensation of officers and members of the legislature," etc.

Would Authorize Levy

The Tax amendment proposes to authorize the legislature to provide for the separation of objects of taxation for state purposes and for the support of the counties, districts and political subdivisions of the state and counties, and authorizes the legislature to provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax or other form of tax for state purposes only and for local purposes only; authorizes the legislature to provide for the classification of objects of taxation and provides that rates shall be equal on the same class of property.

Limit Is Fixed

This amendment in its short form, is described as providing authority for the legislature to enact laws that the state may derive its income, in whole or in part, from other sources than the ad valorem tax. A limit is fixed upon the tax which may be levied for state purposes only, including school purposes, and for county or local purposes, that the sum shall not exceed the present constitutional tax limits.

County officers for those salaries the legislature will be authorized to provide limits, under the amendment, are: District Attorney, district judge, county attorney, sheriff, county clerk, district clerk county tax assessor and county tax collector.

Times have changed making the protection of fish and game an imperative, public necessity.

Reports were heard from officers from the various departments. The president, Mrs. R. L. Mrs. Batte has proved a very efficient leader and it was with regret that her resignation was accepted.

The vice-president, Mrs. W. O. Triggs appointed her old nominating committee to hold a special meeting in June to nominate a president for the future.

It is desired that a large number of gardens be entered i nthis contest. Those who have gardens to 'enter should telephone No. 9.

6 Fang Rattler Is Killed Near Cameron

A diamond back rattler with six fangs was killed on the farm of E. J. Macek Sunday at 11 a. m.

The rattler was found coiled under a lard can in the smoke house. It measures three and a half feet and had nine rattlers. Indications are that some of the rattlers had been broken off.

The snake was discovered by Mr. Macek when he entered the smoke house for some meat, hearing the snake shake his rattlers, he began a search.

The snake was vicious but was held under the can until Mr. Macek returned to the house where he got his 38 Colt revolver and shot the reptile.

The snake had found lodging in a rat's nest under the can. So far this is the only rattler known to have been killed in the sandy community in recent years.

Snakes are said by old time residents to have been plentiful in that section about 40 years ago, but none have been known to exist in recent years.

Rattlers are usually found in rocky sections and in the mesquite lands of West and Southwest Texas.

The snake, according to Mr. Macek had six fangs, four in the upper jaw and two in the bottom. They were nearly an inch in length.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic" Your Child

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

Are You "Toxic?"

It Is Well, Then, to Learn the Importance of Good Elimination.

FUNCTIONAL inactivity of the kidneys permits a retention of waste poisons in the blood. Symptoms of this toxic condition are a dull, languid feeling, drowsy headaches and, sometimes, toxic backache and dizziness. That the kidneys are not functioning as they should is often shown by scanty or burning passage of secretions. Many readers have learned the value of Doan's Pills, stimulant diuretic to the kidneys, in this condition. Users everywhere endorse Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mitchell and Miss Eloise Rogers returned home Monday night from a visit to Houston where Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and their guest went to their farm and range interest near Columbus.

Frank Lehnert

Frank Lehnert was born November 11, 1853 in the country of Austria. He died at the home of his brother in law Frank Seidler in Cameron on April 27 at 4 a. m. and was buried in the Catholic cemetery in Cameron on April 28, 1927 at 10 a. m., following services at the Catholic church conducted by Rev. Father Apel.

Frank Lehnert left his native country for the western world in 1882 reaching Texas that year and settling at San Antonio where he remained for two years and in 1884 came to Cameron in Milam county.

He had known the history of Milam County in the making for the past 40 years or more and as a citizen who loved his adopted country made a good citizen, and grew in the esteem and admiration of his friends.

The first employment of Mr. Lehnert was in a livery stable owned by the late Jim Hefley. This business was located on the site where the Sapp Motor Company is now located.

In 1885 he was married to Miss Emma Seidler and they moved to Burlington where Mr. Lehnert began his new life as a farmer. The first crop he made was on the land where the Southern Pacific depot in Burlington is now located. This since has grown to be a central part of the city and surrounding developed country. In later years he moved to Curry near Cameron and purchased a farm which until December 1926 he owned having sold it and moved to town to make his home with relatives and friends.

He had lived here with Frank Seidler, his brother in law, since Christmas 1926. On September 8, 1925 his wife died and from the effects of this great sorrow in his old age, Mr. Lehnert never recovered, gradually losing his health and grip on life.

Frank Lehnert, like many others who came here from their native lands in Europe, was a thrifty and law abiding citizen, early learning to revere the institutions of America and to appreciate the liberties and opportunities afforded in his land of adoption.

He is survived by four children as follows: Miss Emma Lehnert and Richard Lehnert of Cameron; Edwin Lenhert of Port Lavaca and Mrs. Rudolph Hosch of Belton.

The pall bearers were Ben Boedecker, R. J. Guzner, John Wiltchek, John Adams, J. A. Hosch and Frank Eichinger.

The Herald extends its sympathy to the bereaved relatives in the loss of their loved one. They have in his example of life an inspiration to live better and profit by his unfaltering devotion to the high ideals that characterized his life.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors who came to us during the illness and death of our beloved father, Frank Lehnert. We appreciate more than we can express the many words of kindness and the acts of sympathy during these sad hours. Especially do we thank those who gave flowers and in any way assisted us during this time.

J. R. Davis

J. R. Davis, aged fifty-four years, a native of Mississippi, foreman on the Riverside farm of R. L. Batte, for the past nine years died suddenly of heart attack Wednesday afternoon May 4, 1927 at 5:30 o'clock at his farm home.

J. R. Davis was born in Mississippi and had been a resident of Texas for the past 13 years. He was foreman on the H. F. Smith Sr., farms for one year after coming to Texas. He returned to Mississippi for a short time and returned to Cameron where he became foreman for Mr. Batte and has been in this service for the past nine years. He resided on the Riverside farm near Cummings Crossing.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of R. L. Batte Sr., conducted by Rev. L. J. Power of the Methodist church. The Green Brothers undertaking firm directed the funeral and interment was made in Salem Cemetery.

He leaves to mourn him four children, two sons and two daughters and one grand child. The boys are aged 2 and 9 and the girls aged 14 and 18 years.

Mr. Davis was an exemplary citizen and will be sadly missed by his friends and family. The Herald extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives and friends.
